With sackcloth and ashes in sight the local smart set might have been expected to devote the last week before Lent to paying final tribute to the world, the flesh and the devil but except for a few small and rather informal entertainments the pre-Lenten season has been uncommonly dull this year. Usually there are a few big dances during the Mardi Gras season but Mrs. Dudley's informal dinner dance at the Country club last night for Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Dudley, who returned last week from their wedding trip to New York, and Mrs. W. P. Walker of South Bethlehem, Pa., stands out alone as the only dance of the week of social importance. And tomorrow Ash Wednesday and nothing to look forward to for six weeks but prayer and penitence. (If you don't care what you say.)

The following is from the Columbia, Mo., Daily Tribune of February 29: The annual Kappa Sigma dance in Entertainment hall last night was one of the prettiest of the season. The decorations carried out the fraternity colors, red, white and green. An artificial roof of southern smilax, and masses of the same decoration on the walls, a huge bouquet of lilies of the valley, the fraternity flower, and carnations at intervals, transformed the hall into a summery bower where sixty couples danced unweariedly. Dancers' orchestra furnished music to whose wailing strains the dancers moved till long past midnight. Among the out of town visitors were: Misses Alpha Allen, Ruth White and Imogene Davy of Carthage, Miss Floyd Robinson of Topeka, Miss Alice Alston of Kansas City, R. Hucker of Brookfield, Mo., a brother from the Virginia university chapter, attended last night. The chaperons of the dance were: Mrs. James Lawrence of Joplin, Mrs. F. W. Hunter of Kansas City, Mrs. C. R. Thompson of Columbia, Mrs. J. S. Ankeny, Mrs. J. C. Jones and Mrs. W. G. Brown.

The dance last night was the climax of the house party that has been given at the Kappa Sigma house the past ten days. The visiting girls were entertained at the Kappa house this afternoon. A box party will be given them at the theater tonight.

Mrs. M. W. Van Valkenburg's luncheon at Miller's today served as a housewarming for the new tea room on the third floor and was a most delightful occasion enjoyed by about thirty friends. After luncheon the guests were entertained at five hundred at the Copeland.

Mrs. Arthur Capper gave a luncheon at the Topeka club today for twenty guests in compliment to Mrs. Guilford Dudley II and Mrs. W. P. Walker of South Bethlehem, Pa. The table was decorated with lilies.

The prettiest actress, either in vaudeville or the legitimate, who has been in Topeka this winter is Miss Seelye of the vaudeville team of Barnard and Seelye at the Majestic this week. There is usually some man whom the matinee girls can rave over, faute de mieux, (whatever that may be) at one of the vaudeville houses, but a really attractive girl hasn't blown in before this season. There ought, therefore, to be a good deal of excitement about Miss Seelye in the B. H. R.

Many spring fashions brightened Mrs. George Port Ashton's attractive

BLUE WOMEN

Women should understand that melancholia, commonly called "the blues," is in nine times out of ten a sure symptom of some serious female organic derangement and should have immediate attention.

Women whose spirits are depressed, and who are ailing and miserable, should rely upon as is evidenced by following letters. Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "For three years I was in an awful despondent and nervous condition caused by female troubles. I was not contented anywhere, and was in such constant fear that something terrible was going to happen that it seemed as though I should lose my mind. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored my health, and I cannot say enough for it."

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Mary J. Williams, of Bridgeport, Ill., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I have been suffering from a female trouble, backache and headaches, and was so blue that I was simply in despair. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. The change in my appearance is wonderful, and I wish every suffering woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache. Why don't you try it?

little bijou of a house on the occasion of the tea which she gave Monday afternoon for Dr. Ashton's aunt and niece Mrs. George Port and Miss Welshen. Mrs. Frank Hobart and Mrs. Lee Monroe received with the hostess and Mrs. Hal Hazlett, Miss Margaret Goring, Miss Julia Wellhouse and Miss Mildred Morton assisted. The dining room was decorated with jonquils and lighted by candles and there were jonquils and carnations in the other rooms. A number of friends enjoyed a delightful opportunity of meeting the guests of honor.

An interesting event of tonight to Mr. Henry Fay Look's pipe organ recital at the auditorium, the second of a series of recitals by the faculty of the school of music of Washburn and Mr. Look's first organ recital in Topeka. Mr. Look is a new member of the Washburn faculty this year. His program for tonight is an excellent one and he will be assisted by the Washburn Glee club.

The design illustrates a plain but very smart blouse which will be the favorite model in plain decorated waists. The plaited waists and tucked models are no longer so popular for the tailored blouse, the correct design for the coming season being very plain, without tucks or band trimming or anything of that sort. The chief attraction of these smart little tailored shirts lies in the plaited frills which finish either side of the plait in front. The model sketched was of wash silk in white, with an Alice blue stripe, the frill being made of the silk with a row of inch-wide val insertion set in.

The sophomores of the high school had a class party Saturday night at the home of Stewart Drum 121 Taylor street. The boys of the class entertained the girls.

Mrs. William D. Michael entertained the Tell club yesterday. Mrs. Chester Woodward, Miss Florence Heizer of Osgood City, Miss Eva Smith and Miss Florence Johnstone were substitutes.

Mrs. C. M. Hill will entertain the Friday bridge-luncheon club this week at her home, 817 Lincoln street. Mr. Hill will be the hostess of the ideal club next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. West, 706 Buchanan, announced the marriage of their daughter, Blanche Gertrude, to Mr. Benjamin Hess Hershey of Ocean Park, Cal. The wedding will take place March 21.

Lent begins tomorrow and the S. R. serves notice now that she refuses to undertake the responsibility of anybody's spiritual salvation. If you give parties or attend them from Ash Wednesday to Good Friday (inclusive) you will be bawled out and if the sin lies in said exposure be it upon your own head. The eleventh commandment, always more important than the decalogue, becomes, somehow, of tremendous additional moment during the holy season which to many people who pretend to observe it is merely the hypocritical season. The average person's idea of observing Lent is to introduce the gum shoe as a necessary variant on the usual routine of the popular theory of practice being that nothing is sinful so long as the Bishop and the Dean don't know it.

Some of the Merry Widow sailors are 39 inches in width. The Misses Pickens have them.

Notes and Personal Mention.
